Answer the questions.

Dogs are man's best friends. They can protect us and help us do many things. Luckily, my best friend, Tony, has a big police dog named Duke. Every Sunday afternoon, Tony takes it for a long walk in the park near his home. And Duke likes these long walks very much.

One Sunday afternoon, a young man came to visit my friend. They talked happily for a long time. Soon it was time for my friend to take Duke for the long walk. But the visitor still stayed. Duke became so worried. He walked around the room several times and then sat down in front of the visitor and looked at him. But the visitor paid no attention to Duke. He just went on talking with my friend. Finally, Duke got angry and went out of the room. After a short moment, Duke came back. He sat down again in front of the visitor, but this time, he took the visitor's cap (帽子) in his mouth.

1. What is the police dog's name?

2. When does the writer's friend take the police dog for a long walk in the park?

3. Did the visitor stay at the writer's friend's home for a long time or for a short time?

4. Why did the police dog sit down again in front of the visitor and take the visitor's cap in his mouth?

5. What do you think of the police dog?
